AN EDITOR MAKES A DISCOVERY.

Came To Daytona For a Change
Of Scene And Got More Than He Expected.

HE PICTURES THE LOCAL SCENES.

The following word-painting is by ex-editor Thor A. Davis, Mayville, Ky. Twenty-five years ago the city editor of the Daily News did his first editorial work on a little college paper and Mr. Davis didn't see this old Republican member and war-horse when he was in the city—City Editor.

"I came here yesterday for a change of scene—and got what I came for, with a few added and wholly unexpected things; for of a verity this is the most beautiful city in all Florida. It seems to have been dropped down into the heart of a primeval forest of giant live-oaks, palms and palms, or to have sprung up under the influence of a magician's wand.

The promoters set out to make it a typical New England village, with the residential best uppermost in their bones, and the many palatial homes, many cottages, beautiful wide lawns and flowered avenues, with an almost perfect absence of 'shops,' are quite conclusive evidences of the successful accomplishment of their plans.

"Did you ever picture a place before you saw it—and get it all wrong? I have, and this is one of the times. I thought the Halifax river was probably a little larger than goose creek; but it's a little wider at Daytona fringed with palm vegetation, artistic cottages and comfortable hotels overlooking its bay, electric launches and motor-boats running in every direction, a veritable Eden for fishermen, the Halifax is a thing of beauty and a joy to every fellow who can sit on Beach street and look out upon it. Then I thought Sea Breeze was on 'other side of Daytona, when, in fact, Daytona is on the west side of Seabreeze, with the Halifax flowing between, but spanned by several bridges built on piling.

"In my mind, Ridgewood avenue is Daytona's crowning glory. It runs through the center of the city north and south, on the crest of a broad ridge is fifteen miles long, and as straight as an arrow flies. On either side the wide-spreading branches of massive liveoaks stand their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming a perfect arch, and from these extending arms great bunches of Spanish moss sway as the trade-winds from tropical seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this shell-covered road one has the impression of a fairy path with elixir draperies, but as you go along you see on either side a row of cottage homes in most delightful settings."

"But the stuffing your space too full of Daytona, so I'll take a drive Northward to Ormond. Six miles up Ridgewood avenue, passing numerous orange groves laden with luscious fruit, you come to

HATS OFF TO THE TIMES-UNION.

Florida's Big Daily Is Advertising
Beach Carnival In Great Style.

SUCCESSFUL CARNIVAL ASSURED.

Florida's greatest paper, The Times-Union, is giving Daytona and her speed carnival great advertising, and it will be of immense value to this city and section, and the Daily News hopes the big daily up at the metropolis may share in the glory and the profits.

Yesterday's Times-Union contained two striking cuts, the first showing two high-power racers in action on Daytona Beach. Under the cut these words: "Drivers giving their cars a try-out on Daytona Beach, the fastest straight-away course in the world."

The second cut showed an aeroplane ready to take wing and in big letters these words: "First aeroplane race in America will be held at Daytona Beach."

Pictures so striking as these with the clever write-ups accompanying, given the Times-Union's great circulation, is bound to attract wide attention and interest.

Daytona appreciates such advertising and should give the "great and good" T-U. tangible expression of such appreciation.

Let Daytona's interest be Jacksonville's interest, and Jacksonville's interest Florida's interest. There is glory and prosperity for all if it is gone after right; it will extend from St. Augustine to St. Petersburg, and from Tallahassee to Miami.

Every Florida town can't build skyscrapers as Jacksonville is now doing; they all can't catch the fish New Smyrna is catching; they can't pull off fairs as Tampa does or play golf in Palm Beach's class or hold a light to Daytona's speed contests but they can watch Daytona's smoke and make a noise that sounds like prosperity.

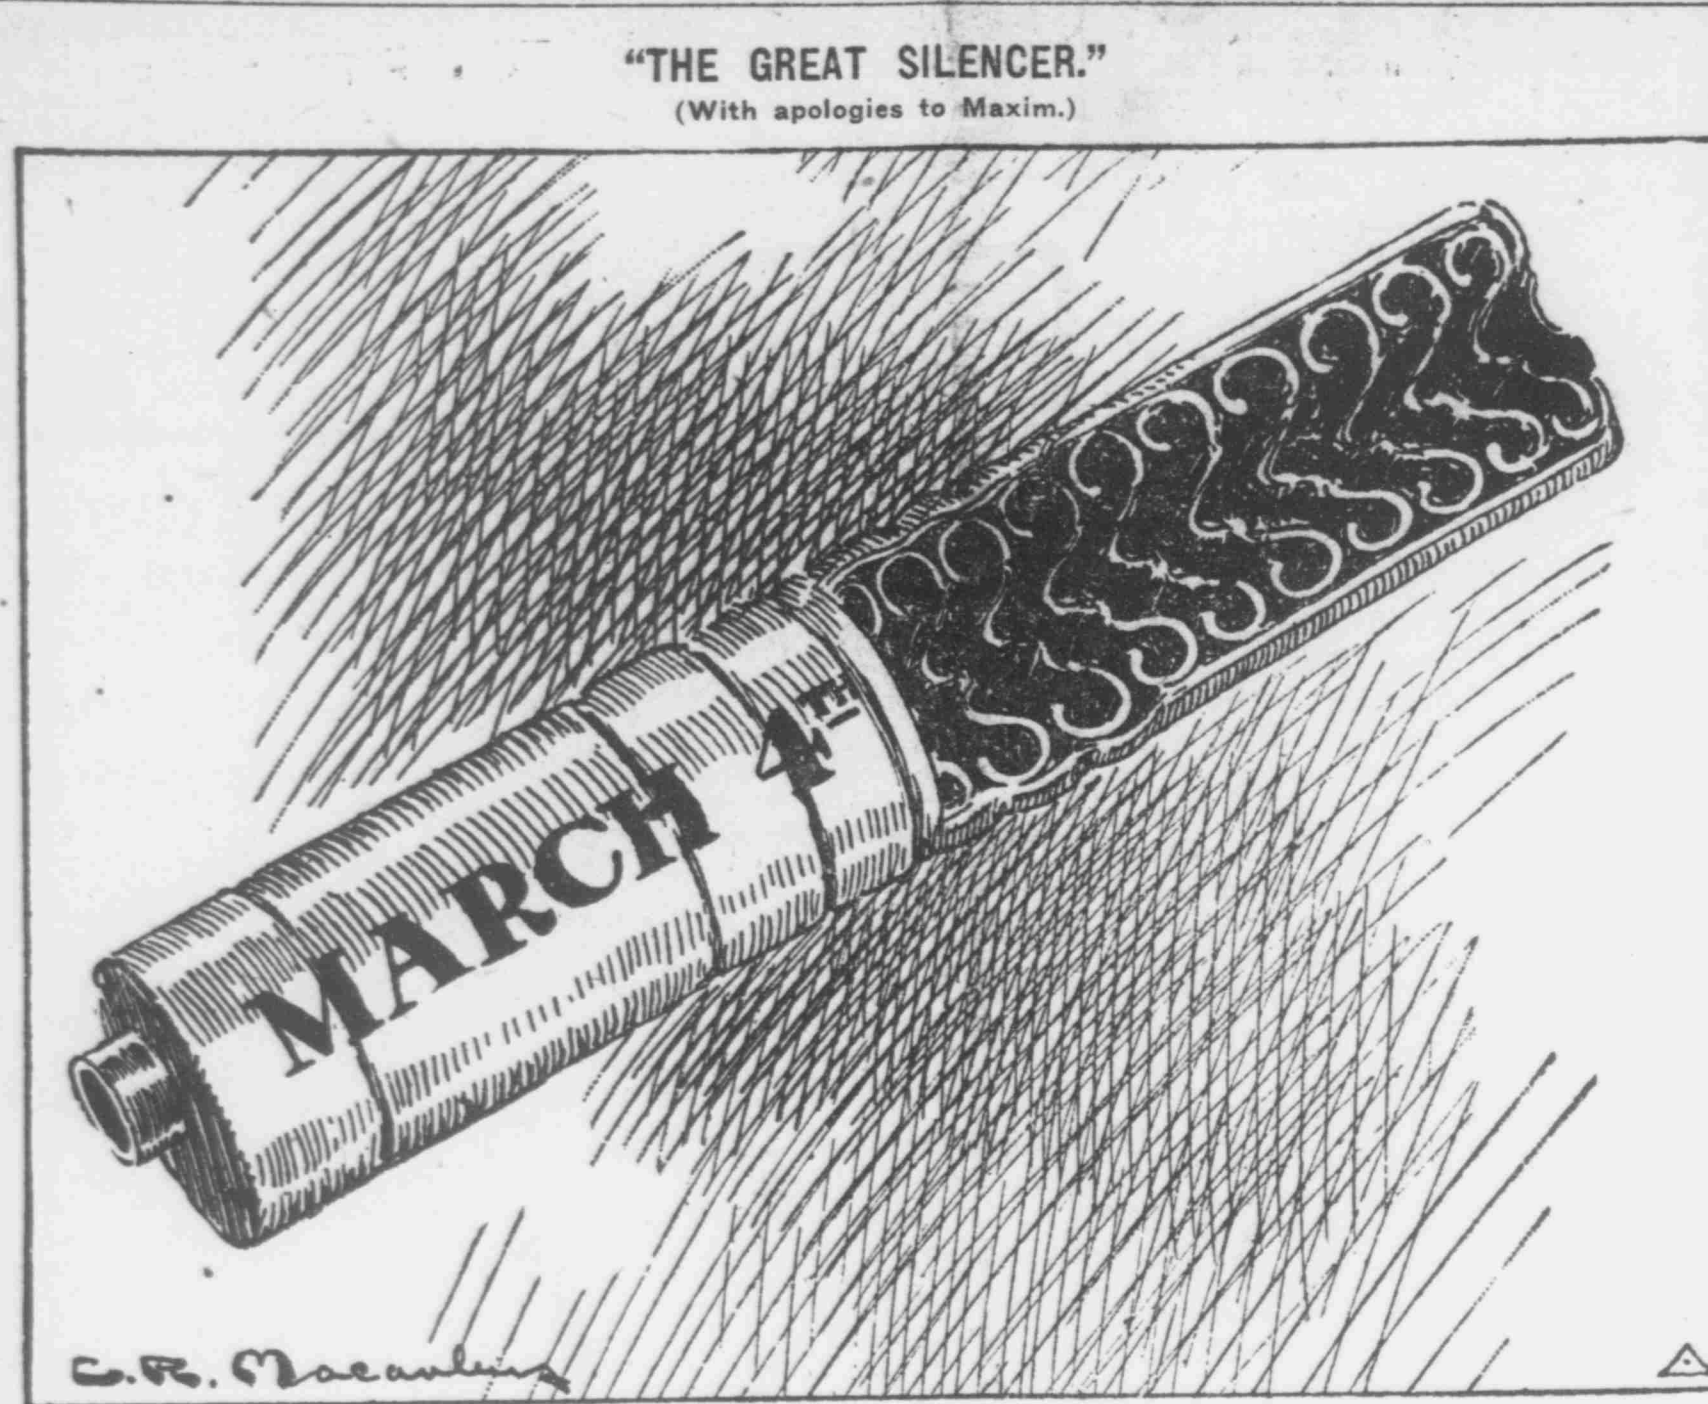

MUCH INTEREST IN CALVE.

Manager Burgman, of Wilman's opera house, reports sale of seats for Calve, the peerless singer, as going off like hot cakes. He has patrons booked from DeLand, Orlando, Sanford, New Smyrna, Port Orange and Ormond. In response to Manager Price's call he went to Hotel Ormond today, taking a plat or diagram of the house and sold a large block of seats, and the Ormond will be down several autos strong.

Mme. Calve sings at Palm Beach tonight, and Manager Burgman expects the world-renowned vocalist to reach Daytona tomorrow as she is partial to these cities, and will make her stay here as long as possible.

Many seats have been engaged and it looks now as if by tomorrow they may be going at a premium.

Mme. Calve goes from here to St. Augustine, where she is billed to appear Monday night.

ACCIDENT TO A. K. BROKAW.

Yesterday afternoon about one o'clock A. K. Brokaw and C. A. Gontz were transferring an iron frame cot from the warehouse to a wagon in the rear of the Bingham & Moley furniture store, Mr. Brokaw met with a painful accident which put him out business the balance of the day, although he returned to his post of duty this morning.

The horse had been relieved of his burden and given his noon feed, being tied with a rope about his neck, and was still attached to the wagon. Mr. Brokaw stood in the wagon to receive the cot passed to him from the stairway of the warehouse. The horse evidently startled by the object suspended overhead made a sudden jump, throwing Mr. Brokaw to the ground and the cot, upon which Mr. Gontz was unable to retain his grasp, fell upon him, bruising him in several places. His back was also wrenched by the fall. He was carried into the store and after resting for a time was taken to his home on Fairview avenue by Col. Bingham.

He is back at the store again this morning, feeling somewhat stiff and sore from his shake-up, but very thankful there were no more serious results.

Is Honored By Appointment.

H. Dale Miller, of Miami, a son of H. S. Miller of this city, has recently been appointed as general agent for the State of Florida to represent the Florida Fruit Lands Company, one of the richest in the State. Mr. Miller, who is clerk of the Criminal Court of Record for Dade County, was selected from among a number of able men under consideration by the company.

HOLLY HILL

Miss Martha Haferkorn, cousin of Mrs. Kline, left on Wednesday for her home in Champagne, Ill. Mr. Kline accompanied her as far as Jacksonville.

We numbered amongst our visitors last week Mr. and Mrs. Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. Cornell, Mrs. Graham Thompson, Mrs. and Miss Milligan, Mrs. Gartschoer and her niece Miss Gunn, from London, Canada.

After spending a few days with her daughter Mrs. Merkel, Mrs. Mann returned to Seabrooke on Tuesday.

W. H. Heath made his first shipment of celery on Wednesday.

Mrs. H. A. Carter was in Daytona last Thursday visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Carter.

S. T. Hill and C. G. Towsey drove over from Winter Park last Saturday. On Monday Mr. and Miss Brown and Mrs. Robbins and little daughter were over calling on G. W. Harris.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dillon and Miss Emery of London, Ontario, Canada, spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. Heath, on their way home from Cuba and Nassau. It was Mr. Dillon's and Miss Emery's first visit and they were charmed with the beauties of Florida, especially the Tomoka river, which they saw under particularly auspicious circumstances. Making the trip up in the afternoon and returning by moonlight, the water was quite calm and the reflections perfect, rendering the scene a wonderful land of beauty.

TENT SHOW IS COMING.

Commencing Monday, the Lyceum Comedy Company begin a week's engagement in their big waterproof tent on the beach street package just north of the city hall. They carry twenty people in a repertoire of the latest plays. The company will play under the auspices of the City of Daytona.

MISS MARION MARSH.

They lead off Monday evening in a four-act Southern comedy drama "The Tramp and the Lady." Singing and dancing will be specialties.

AL S. EVANS.

The company comes here from Titusville, where they have been playing this week. The Titusville papers, Star and Advocate, speak in complimentary terms of the show they gave there.

LITTLE WILLIE QUOTES TEXT.

A pious mother of a Daytona boy has been taking special pains to have her son remember the minister's Sunday morning texts. Every Sunday on returning home she asks Willie if he can repeat the text. Usually Willie does.

Last Sunday the mother was suffering from a cold and Willie went alone to church. On his return Willie was soon asked to repeat the text. Willie looked at the ceiling a minute, then at his grandma's picture on the wall, dug his toe into the carpet, grew a little red in the face, but only for a minute. Willie took on a triumphant expression and smilingly said: "Oh yes; I know what it was: 'Don't be afraid for you'll get the quilt.'" His mother was horrified.

"That is impossible; no such language as that is in the Bible," replied his mother. Willie insisted that that was the preacher's text.

After dinner the minister called and Mrs. Jones asked what his text was. This is the way the minister said it: "Fear not for I shall be your comforter."

Willie remembered it: "Don't be afraid for you'll get the quilt."

MEETING POSTPONED.

Because of the small attendance (owing to rain) at the meeting called by the Civic Department of the Palmetto Club yesterday afternoon for the purpose of organizing a Civic League, action was postponed until next Thursday, March 18, when another meeting will be held at the Palmetto Club House on Orange avenue.

PORT ORANGE

Mr. Cushman went to Jacksonville last week.

Mr. Sufes of Illinois has bought the lot corner of Orange street on Dunlawton avenue, of Mrs. Doudinville.

Miss May Milburn came home from St. Augustine Friday to spend Saturday and Sunday with her parents.

Bishop W. C. Gray was here Friday and held divine service in Grace church in the evening when three were confirmed.

Major Don Morris was in town Sunday afternoon.

We had a moving picture show all last week in a tent on the river shore.

J. H. Hulse of St. Augustine came in Sunday to look our town over, with the view of settling among us.

Mr. DuBois of Bluffton, S. C. and Miss DuBois and her niece Mrs. Vandewater, of Hyde Park, N. Y., arrived Monday to visit their nephew Dr. DuBois.

Mrs. Simcoe was hostess of the card party Tuesday evening.

CONTRACT CLOSES MARCH 31.

All Contestants Receiving Heavy
Votes And The Winner Still Uncertain.

ONLY TWENTY DAYS MORE.

The count on Wednesday evening in the Bush & Safford Piano Contest showed a remarkable vote. In Daytona three candidates had votes considerably over a hundred thousand, while another, the Eastern Star, had a vote of 70,460. Outside of Daytona the three leaders had good votes, the Wilman's opera house lengthening its lead, and the Kingston school passing the Seabreeze High School.

In Daytona the Halifax Rifles made a gain on the Daytona High School of over 45,000, while at the same time the Elks gained about 40,000 on the Eastern Star. Even at that the Star had a larger vote than that order has had for some weeks. Miss McCann passed Miss Mary Gille. The vote throughout was large.

After tomorrow no more nominations will be allowed, and only those already entered will go to the finish. The finish is nearly in sight, too.

In order to avoid any possible random criticism or dispute, it is probable that during the last five days or week of the contest a "roster" for each of the four leaders will be chosen to count the final votes, which will probably really decide the contest.

Remember that you get one vote for every cent paid to any of the firms represented in the contest, and you get 500 votes for every $1.50 paid on subscription to the Gazette-News. The contest closes April 1, and it behooves you to get all the votes you possibly can—a few votes at the last minute may mean much to your favorite contestant.

AEROPLANE HAS ARRIVED

A mammoth flying machine arrived this afternoon by express for the tournament on Daytona Beach.

Fred D. Miller, district passenger agent of the Illinois Central Railway with headquarters at Birmingham, is in Daytona today.

Mrs. A. Hilliard entertained at cards Wednesday afternoon at her home on S. Ridgewood avenue, the game being progressive bridge. Notwithstanding the unpropitious state of the weather a number of ladies were present and passed two hours or more very enjoyably at play, following which refreshments were served. There were four tables of players engaged, Mrs. Newell winning first prize and Mrs. Edward Marrenes the second prize.

JACK JOHNSON IN HIS ENGLISH CLOTHES.

This picture of Jack Johnson, the heavyweight champion pugilist and his trainers, was taken on board the ship that took Johnson from the scene of his victory in Australia to London. The giant will tour this country immediately upon his return from England and probably will obtain a match with Jeffries for next fall.

CRABBING IS GOOD SPORT.
If you want some fun just go crabbing. You need a small dip net on a long pole. If you like you may tie a piece of fish or other meat in the bottom of your net and drop it down in the water. After a minute draw it up and you are apt to have anywhere from one to five crabs in it.
It is a little better sport to take a pole and line and fish for them. As soon as a crab bites, and that will be in short order, draw him up gently and slip your net under him, when he can be lifted up into your crab basket.
The river is full of them now and they are delightful to eat, the legs and part of the shell be...g packed with a delightful white meat which for salad can't be beat.
Just boil your crabs and crack the shell of the back and legs for the meaty contents. Be sure that you don't get any of the "dead man's fingers" of the back mixed with the good meat. Once shown the "fingers" you will never forget their location and appearance.
Crab fishing is now good from any of the city wharves or from the bridges.
Storms Crippled the Wires.
The storms of the forepart of the week seem to have demoralized traffic and crippled the telegraph and telephone services more than any other storm in years. The Daily News service usually is half in by 12 m. This week it has been missing entirely, or greatly delayed.
Today at one o'clock the wires have failed to flash any news, and as the Daily News forms are locked up about 2 p. m. and the big press and folder started the world's news by wire will be conspicuous by its absence again.
